

COUNSELOR OF THE YEAR

The South Carolina Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (SCAADAC) honors our profession annually by recognizing an outstanding Addictions Counselor in the state. We invite you to participate in this celebration by nominating your choice for SCAADAC Counselor of the Year.

Your Nominee needs to be:

1. An Addictions Counselor.
2. A member in good standing of SCAADAC/ NAADAC.
3. A long-term line counselor who has served as a positive role model and influence to both his/her clients and peers.
4. An individual who has made positive and innovative contributions to the field of addiction counseling in the state.

How To Nominate

Send a letter of nomination/ recommendation that is between 250-300 words in length, describing your nominee's accomplishments in the field of addiction counseling, specifically addressing how your nominee has made a positive and innovative contribution to the field of addiction counseling in South Carolina. In addition to your letter of nomination/ recommendation, include at least three (3) letters of support and a copy of the individual's resume. This packet should be sent to the Chair of the Awards and Nominations Committee. It is recommended that all required information be sent together. Incomplete packages will not be considered.

The recipient of this award will be recognized at the SCAADAC Fall Conference and will be the SCAADAC nominee for the NAADAC Lora Roe Memorial Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselor of the Year Award. SCAADAC will pay the recipient's conference registration and two nights' hotel stay to attend the SCAADAC Fall Conference.
